Penalty for Injuries to Property

State of New York, Laws, 1927, Ch. 542.

A person who wilfully or maliciously cuts, tears, defaces, disfigures, soils, obliterates, breaks or destroys, a book, map, chart, picture, engraving, statue, coin, model, apparatus, specimen, or other works of literature or object of art, or curiosity, deposited in a public library, gallery museum, collection, fair or exhibitions, or in a library, gallery, college or university, or to any incorporated institution devoted to educational, scientific literary, artistic, historical or charitable purposes, is punishable by imprisonment of not more than one year, or by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars, or by both such fine and imprisonment.
